March 10-11, 2010 / N=400 "likely" GOP voters /  $\pm 4.9\%$  M.O.E.

If the election for Congress was held today and you had to make a choice, for whom would you vote...

- Pat Herrity, or
- Keith Fimian?

Pat Herrity strongly dominates the primary at every level - seniors, very conservative voters, pro-life voters, and habitual Fox watchers. Herrity's advantage is not simply driven by his name ID advantage, as he is beating Fimian by +16 points among those Republicans who know both and those Republicans who have an impression of both candidates.- David Sackett, Tarrance Group
